

The SU Humanities Center and the Department of Writing Studies, Rhetoric, and Composition present:

THE POLITICS OF TRANSLINGUALISM: AFTER ENGLISHES

Drawing from his newly released book, The Politics of Translingualism: After Englishes, Professor Jerry Won Lee discusses the politics of evaluating language, including different Englishes, at a moment of unprecedented linguistic plurality worldwide. He argues for an ongoing need to confront the metadiscourse of plurality and difference in Englishes and to reevaluate not “different” Englishes themselves, but to reevaluate the very epistemologies of evaluation in the first place.
