

Writing Program

Think Tank

Sponsored by the Diversity Committee

In this, the first semester of the new 105/205 Learning Outcomes, we invite you to come together to write, rant and dialogue about, your fall teaching experiences. Share class artifacts too; we are interested in meltdowns, fireworks and moments of genius that characterize your work with the new curriculum. Encourage your students to attend and participate as well.

Date: Tuesday, November 15th 9:30- 11:00*

Location: The Writing Center*

Refreshments will be provided.
