Intertext is a publication of the Syracuse University Writing Program. It features the work of Writing Program students and represents the quality and variety of writing produced in its undergraduate courses.

The Louise Wetherbee Phelps Award recognizes excellence in writing in the Writing Program's courses. Submissions are evaluated on depth, complexity, technical control, emotional and intellectual appeal, and how well they reflect the goals of the Writing Program. The 2014 winners are Sarah Schuster for "A Q&A with Dark Corners" and Soleil Young for "Cashing in on the Pink Ribbon."
